HUGE LIQUOR OUTFIT TAKEN TUESDAY NOON

Most Complete Outfit Ever Captured Found on Blood River Bank

Three are captured, three more sought

Rules of Operating Apparatus; "Moral Code" are Found Posted

One of the largest liquor manufacturing outfits ever discovered in Western Kentucky was discovered Tuesday noon by Federal and county officers Tuesday noon a mile from the mouth of Blood River.

The three arrested were Lee Shadwick, father of Freeman Shadwick, who was convicted of the killing of Tosco Hale at the August term of circuit court; Casey Bryan and William Calhoun. The men were taken when the tires were shot off an automobile, in which they were riding. The officers reported that three women were seen approaching the still but fled when they saw the officers. Not only did the men have one of the largest liquor outfits ever seen but they had posted rules and regulations, set forth a code of morals and had established living quarters. In a tent, 12 by 14, were cots, a cooking stove and a quantity of provisions.

There was also a sign "East Distilling Company" posted on the grounds. The still was discovered in a small clump of woods on the river bank.

Two high-powered rifles and a .38 calibre Colt's revolver were captured. Some of the rifles were taken by the men who escaped.

The huge stills could not be brought to the spot, but were smashed on the spot. The river liquor was emptied into the river and the mash poured out on the spot. The three men were carried to Paducah where they will be held until a trial is made. The cot, rifles and other equipment were carried to Paducah.

Officers participating in the raid were Federal Agents Walter Guess and W. J. Myre, of Paducah and J. S. Payne, of Hopkinsville. Deputy Sheriffs Burman Parker and J. H. Orr and Captain Patrolman Bart Osborn.

Following is a list of the liquor and apparatus:

1,700-gallon still; 1,500-gallon still; 11 50-gallon barrels; 138 50-gallon fermenters; 2 500-gallon flake stands; 76 barrels of mash; 100 gallons of whiskey; 4 500-gallon vats; and a force pump.

There were more than 10,000 gallons of mash in the huge 200-gallon heads, which were held by a large bolted hoops. Liquor was being produced at the rate of a gallon a minute. Nearly half an acre was occupied by the entire outfit. Also captured was a business ledger which showed orders as high as 200 gallons having been filled.

Following was the rules posted for the operators:

"Do not leave the still until sundown."

"Liquor must be 110 proof."

"Do not trust anyone."

"Do not shoot until you have good aim."

"Take off your hats to all ladies."

"All new hands must obey."

"Do not leave fires under the still when leaving."

"Do not run still too hard for it makes mean whiskey."

"Be sure to keep water good and cool."

"Be sure to fill barrels good and full."

"Do not allow visitors at any time."

"Do not trust a stranger."

Here was the attitude toward their business as posted by the operators:

"As you pass by you may say 'there is where the outlaw bunch has been.' It is not the aim of any of us to be outlaws. We are working for our loved ones, just like you. Maybe not like you, either, for our motto is: neither lie or cheat or steal for our money. Nor do we try to get anyone in trouble just to try to win a name. We are just working for our living."

TEMPERATURE UP TO 97 THIS WEEK

Promised Showers Fall to Materialize; Weather Fine for Curing Leaf.

Abnormally hot September weather pushed the thermometer up to 97 both Tuesday and Wednesday this week. Last Thursday was a record breaker for September with a maximum of 98.

Nights have been warm also though comparatively pleasant. The warmest night of the week was Tuesday when the lowest temperature was 70. Monday had a high of 95, while the mercury went to 93 Sunday and 91 last Saturday.

The weather man has been promising local thunder showers but they have not yet materialized.

The hot weather has been uncommonly beneficial for tobacco curing and the leaf is slowly curing into one of the best crops produced here in ten years.

UNEMPLOYED MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Memphis Man, Name Unknown, Run-over Sunday; Buried in Pauper Lot.

An unidentified white man, about 45 years old, was killed here Sunday morning about 7:30 o'clock by a southbound G. M. & N. freight train between the railway station and the Paris crossing.

Whether the man was a suicide cannot be determined though this is believed to be the fact. The engineer, W. A. Wilson, telephoned Coroner J. H. Churchil about 4:30 o'clock and advised him of the tragedy. A body was observed walking south on the track but showed no signs of hearing the whistle.

There were no marks of identification whatever on the man. Judge C. A. Hale and Station Agent O. L. Boren made considerable inquiries but were unable to identify the man. He was buried in the pauper lot in the city cemetery Monday afternoon.

Several persons here talked to the man Saturday. He told them that he had worked at the seven years but was now out of work. He was apparently about 45 years old, weighed about 150 pounds and was 58 inches in height. He wore a blue work shirt and two pairs of trousers.

FOURTEEN PAGES THREE SECTIONS THIS WEEK

POSTOFFICE WORK IS BEGUN MONDAY

Excavation Pushed at Rapid Rate; Building Will Be Brick, Stone Trimmed.

Excavation records for Murray were broken all to the south-sens this week when the contractors began digging the basement for the new Murray office.

With a steam shovel of a yard and a quarter capacity and plenty of trucks a great hole was dug before noon Monday and by Tuesday night almost all the necessary excavation for the basement had been completed by the huge shovel.

The operations were of keen interest to a number of citizens and the workmen had quite a large gallery of spectators all day Monday and Tuesday.

The new postoffice will be of brick with considerable stone trimming. However, the contract does not include walks on the two sides toward the streets, Maple and Fourth, or paving for the driveways in the rear. It is believed that these will be extras.

Samford Bros., Montgomery, Alabama, who have the contract, promise that the building will be ready by the first of next June. Local labor will be used as far as practical, they say.

DISTRICT CHAIRMEN WILL MEET SATURDAY

District chairmen of the Calloway county organization to sign up the tobacco crop have been called to meet at the court house here Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. The call was issued by Senator T. O. Turner, county chairman.

This Edition Printed On Web Press

This edition of the Ledger & Times is printed on the web press, which has been in the process of being installed in our plant during the past two weeks. There also goes out with this edition, an extra copy for each student registering in Murray State College for the fall term. It is in the nature of a "Students' Welcome Number."

There are many necessary adjustments in the installation of a press and if you find some imperfections in your copy you may rest assured that they will be ironed out as rapidly as possible as soon as the press has had an opportunity to adjust itself to the new installation and accustom itself to its new home.

The press now being used is radically different from anything ever used in Murray before. Instead of requiring sheets of paper fed into it by hand, it feeds from rolls and delivers the papers, four, six or eight pages, folded and counted all at one operation, at the rate of 3,000 an hour.

We give all our friends a cordial invitation to come in and see the new press. It is quite a large piece of machinery, weighing more than 22,000 pounds. Come in and see it.

RAINEY T. WELLS,
President, Murray State College

County Dairy Show To Be October 9, 10

The Calloway County Jersey Cattle club will hold its annual Jersey show Friday and Saturday, October 9th and 10th, according to County Agent C. O. Dickey. There will be classes in this show for all age animals, both male and female.

This show is being made possible by contributions from the business and professional men of Murray.

Purebred breeders are asked to start setting their animals ready for this show. With better crop conditions, we should make the show bigger than last year when we had 60 head of animals on exhibit.

The contracts for signatures of growers are now getting into the hands of many workers and farmers throughout the Eastern and Western Dairy Farm District. Pledging is starting very satisfactorily as evidenced by report from workers in different sections. At a meeting of Tobacco Growers, held at Kirksey Stewart house, September 15, it was reported that 80 per cent of the tobacco growers present signed the contract while the remainder desired further time to study it.

This is the farmers move and they are realizing very readily that something must be done to avoid a repetition of last year's marketing conditions.

It seems too that they are willing to accept the plan sponsored by the Federal Farm Board as set forth in the marketing contract now on file with the Federal Farm Board to sell the tobacco cooperatively. It is important that a sign-up of this crop is had at the earliest date possible since the earlier a sufficient amount of tobacco is pledged to operate the more effective the plans for handling the present crop can be made.

The Federal Farm Board, advises the farmers that it is willing and amply able to help them themselves by organizing into a Cooperative Marketing Association. The relief provided for in the various branches of agriculture by the Marketing Act can only be obtained by the individual growers through the heads of cooperatives. Therefore it is highly essential that the growers realize this fact and form their organization as early as possible in order to avail themselves of relief measures offered by this Act, through the Federal Farm Board. Every farmer should see his county chairman, secretary-treasurer or some local worker at the earliest date possible and sign up in this forward move for better prices.

Prof. James Jones is spending a few days here visiting old friends. Mr. Jones, who was ten years principal of Murray high school, is now connected with the Federal Farm Board. He has surveyed conditions from Idaho to the Atlantic seaboard and as far south as Florida.

H. E. Wall and K. C. Frazee spent the first of the week hunting and wishing on Blood River near Concord.

AGED MAN INJURED IN ODD ACCIDENT

S. K. Crawford, aged citizen of Murray, was seriously hurt the first of this week in a peculiar accident.

Mr. Crawford had started back to Tennessee after a visit to his son, Riley Crawford, in a car with Loyal Farmer.

According to the version of the accident received by the Ledger & Times, Farmer was blinded by the lights of an approaching car as he was crossing a railroad track and his car overthrown by the rails when he went too far to the right to avoid hitting the other car.

Mr. Crawford suffered a fractured back and severe head hurts, it is understood.

Harold Caplinger left the last of the week for Paducah where he will teach mathematics and science in the junior high school.

Mrs. Willie Lynn and Miss Evelyn Lynn will leave next week for Nashville to spend the winter.

Miss Lynn will work for her Master's degree at Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Ernie Hartsfield and daughters, visited in Clarksville, Tenn., last week.

FINNEY HELPS FORM TRIGG COUNTY WORK

W. H. Finney, district chairman of the tobacco sign-up was in Calloway Monday assisting in forming the drive for members in Trigg county.

Circuit Judge Ira D. Smith adjourned court for farmers to have the circuit court room for a meeting from 1:30 to 3:00 o'clock. Dan Grinter, prominent farmer, was chairman of the meeting.

Following addresses by a Mr. Ladd and Mr. Finney, an organization to form a Trigg county tobacco growers' association was formed with Mr. Grinter, as secretary-treasurer. The court room was filled with farmers for the meeting.

Miss Lorene Swann left the last of the week for Water Valley where she will again teach.

Miss Rubie Swann will be in Paducah this winter where she will continue her work in the Paducah schools.

Mrs. A. P. V. Cook, Model, Tenn., was a patient at the Clinic Hospital this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Langston will leave Saturday for Hartford, Conn., to make their home.

New Type Dress for Ledger & Times With Installation of New Press

Readers will note some changes in the mechanical appearance of The Ledger & Times this week. We feel quite sure that they will agree with us that these changes are an improvement and will make reading of the paper much easier.

It will be noted that the page length is somewhat shorter than before and that there is slightly more space between the lines of reading type. This difference is an increase of only 1-72 of an inch between the lines but even that small additional width will make reading much easier on the eyes.

Until the installation of our new press, our printing limitations made it necessary for us to set the news lines as close together in order to get as many as possible and as much news as practical into the paper.

With this new installation we hope to be able to print more pages than formerly, though the number of pages will, as always, depend upon the amount of advertising ordered from week to week.

It has always been and will continue to be the policy of The Ledger & Times to give the people of Calloway county the very best newspaper in our power. We are never satisfied with our efforts but continually strive to make the Ledger & Times better and better, to keep pace with the times and grow as Calloway county grows.

LEAF GROWERS BEGIN TO SIGN NEW CONTRACT

Finney Reports Organization is Progressing at Fast Rate; Interest Shown

REPORT 80 PER CENT SIGN UP AT KIRKSEY

Other Counties of Area Reported to be Organizing Farmers

By W. H. Finney
Chairman, Western District

Western District Tobacco Growers are becoming more interested every day in signing up contracts for the handling of 1931 crop of tobacco cooperatively.

Calloway County is organized in its working force for the sign up of this tobacco crop with Senator T. O. Turner, chairman and J. Delton Purdon secretary-treasurer.

Marshall County is also organized with Boone Hill, a leading farmer as chairman and B. L. Trevathan, cashier of Marshall County Bank, as secretary-treasurer.

Graves County was organized September 10th with an enthusiastic crowd of farmers at Mayfield Court House with Jim Wade, Stewart, assisted by Graves Littleton, Burton, and others as a leading farmer, chairman and Cecil Thompson, principal of Cuba High School, secretary-treasurer.

Henry County, Tenn., is starting her organization campaign under the leadership of Joe L. Stewart, assisted by Graves Littleton, Tom Burton and others.

The above named workers for the various counties are constantly being assured of the cooperation of business and professional men in every locality in forming the tobacco growers' association for the handling of tobacco now being housed through out the district.

The contracts for signatures of growers are now getting into the hands of many workers and farmers throughout the Eastern and Western Dairy Farm District. Pledging is starting very satisfactorily as evidenced by report from workers in different sections. At a meeting of Tobacco Growers, held at Kirksey Stewart house, September 15, it was reported that 80 per cent of the tobacco growers present signed the contract while the remainder desired further time to study it.

NEW LOOSE FLOOR WILL BE OPERATED

J. K. Farmer Agrees to Close Business There After April, 1932.

A compromise was reached by the city council Thursday afternoon in the controversy over a loose floor in the building formerly occupied by Hood-Moore Lumber Company on South Fifth street, between Maple and Poplar.

The council met several times last week to thresh out the mooted point. Residents in the neighborhood protested against the operation of the floor there.

J. K. Farmer had leased the building for two years for a loose floor and let a contract for repairs on the building.

On a motion to give Mr. Farmer a permit for one year the council decided three-to-two. It motioned to give a two-year permit. Then, on motion of Dr. W. H. Graves and by agreement of Mr. Farmer, it was voted that Mr. Farmer be given a permit to operate the floor until April, 1932. All the voting was by secret ballot.

Dickey Says Dairymen's Opportunities to Make Money Are Best in Many Years

Dairymen of Calloway County are in position to make the most money from good cows this year that they have been able to make in several years, according to County Agent, C. O. Dickey. This is a very startling statement to make in the face of present prices but let's us analyze the situation and see for ourselves.

Butterfat prices are now a little less than half the price they were in 1929 at the same time of year. Also feed prices have declined in price to the same degree. All other farm products for sale in Calloway have declined in price 40 per cent or over since this period, but dairy products have declined only 24 per cent. The dairy market still holds the price advantage over other farm commodities.

Also farmers have already produced on their farms an abundant supply of home grown feeds, which can be consumed thru the dairy cow to a better advantage than thru any other kind of livestock. These feeds include corn, wheat, oats, soybeans and less-podded hay. Feeds that, by buying some protein concentrates to go with them, will make a good balanced ration for milk cows.

Below Mr. Dickey is listing 16 per cent, 20 per cent, and 24 per cent feeds that can be mixed at home from practically all home grown feed.

Good 16 per cent rations should be mixed in the following proportions: 400 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $0.95 per hundred at present retail prices; 200 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground wheat, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.02 per hundred; 200 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground wheat, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.13 per hundred.

Good 20 per cent rations should be mixed in the following proportions: 200 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.01 per hundred; 200 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground wheat, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.14 per hundred; 200 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground wheat, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.21 per hundred.

Good 24 per cent ration should be mixed in the following proportions: 200 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground wheat, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.43 or 100 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground wheat, 200 pounds straight bran, 100 pounds of Cotton Seed Meal, which will cost about $1.72 per hundred.

These are only a few of the many feed combinations that may

This is probably the LOWEST PRICE clothing advertisement EVER PRINTED . . . .

THIS SUIT $1.94

"This Suit" is really a large white sheet. It covers the body, launders well, and costs only $1.94.

It has its disadvantages like any other low price clothing—it doesn't fit; the style isn't so good, and it wouldn't quite pass at a directors' meeting or at the club—but it will keep you out of jail.

ON THE OTHER HAND, if you do want to look well dressed and hold the respect of your business associates, and look like success at a time when success never meant more—pay the price of good clothes. They're all lower priced than a year ago; lower priced than the new woolen prices and present labor scales justify, but that's our party, and not yours.

But $75 suits for $29.50 and $50 suits for $17.50 is just plain hokum—you can take our word for it; we know—and we're telling you.

Welcome, Students

All Murray extends a cordial and sincere welcome to the college students who come this week and next to start or continue their education in Murray State College.

The college means much to Murray, not only in making this community a better and more lively city in trade but also because Murray State College gives to Murray an atmosphere for culture and refinement that it could not obtain by any other means.

Especially to the new students does Murray offer every facility at her command for making their residence here pleasant and profitable. Boys and girls away from home the first time often grow homesick for the comforts of their own hearthside. But they will find Murray a delightful city where a genuine spirit of neighborliness and helpfulness prevails.

Practically every student who has attended this great institution feels at home in Murray. Many of them become closely attached to the community, gain warm friends here and visit it at every opportunity after graduation.

Honestly, we believe more graduates have shown genuine grief at leaving Murray after the completion of their college work than ever mourned at leaving the parental roof when first going away to school.

Thank goodness, no caste system has ever been founded at Murray State College. Newcomers will not find cliques that set themselves apart and superior from the remainder of the student body. Murray State College personifies the spirit of true democracy. No student is barred from popularity or leadership because of financial or any other handicaps.

The place each student holds in the estimation and affection of his classmates is determined solely by his personality, ability and willingness to play the game square.

We of Murray and Calloway county and Western Kentucky are proud of this institution. Those who have attended it are proud of it and love it and we know those entering it for the first time this year will soon learn to love it and to take pride in its accomplishments, its reputation and its character.

Dairy Show Needed

By all means, Calloway county should have her regular county dairy show this year. Farm conditions are much better than last year when the county exhibition was held with high success despite the blight of the draft.

County agent Dicky announces that the breeders will be pleased to exhibit their animals this fall for prizes totalling $200, a decrease of $100 from last year. At the Murray Rotary Club last Thursday every member present not only voted that the show should be held but indicated his willingness to contribute toward the fund necessary to stage a show.

Calloway county should not think of permitting the benefits of a dairy show to lapse. If this exhibition, valuable to the maintenance of interest in and the continued success of purebred cattle breeding, much valuable ground will be lost.

Though the time is growing short to prepare adequate plans breeders, business men and all interested in the dairy industry in Calloway county will attack the task with a vigor and interest that will put the show over in grand style.

CLERK, CANDIDATE HERE

Mr. Oscar Wicker, assistant clerk of the Senate and candidate for election for the chief clerkship and Senator Marion Pogue, both of Crittenden county, were in town Thursday evening in the interest of Mr. Wicker's candidacy.

Be sure you know your boot-licker nowadays; he might be a Government snitch.

There are still too many sports who think Murray's paved streets are the Indianapolis speedway and that every day is Memorial Day. Better cut it out, you fast drivers, before you kill someone.

And believe it or not—Murray's actually going to have her postoffice after waiting, in these many years.

Ordered your copy of the Calloway county history yet? Don't wait too long.

School days are with us again. The pupils will be glad when their school days are over and the grown-ups are wishing they had their school days back again. Such is life. When you get what you wanted, you don't want it.

Ben Johnson says that he won't die until he sees a paved road from Cumberland Falls to Mammoth Cave and those who know the determination of Mr. Johnson do not doubt him in the least.

Tom Banks says that it was worth the trip out to the Labor Day celebration to see the Jetter at work in the Legion refreshment stand. And it was worth a few hours work to see Tom get up from his recumbent position on the counter at Stedd's clothing store.

I want to pay a deserved tribute to a worthy youngster. For the greater part of the past year, Clay Copeland has been my assistant on both news and advertising. In my experience I have never seen a more earnest, faithful, conscientious and dependable worker than Clay. He has made many friends both for himself and for the Ledger & Times during this pleasant connection. As Clay is entering his senior year in Murray State College this week he has resigned his position. Clay has won the affection of every member of the Ledger & Times staff and carries their best wishes for a happy and successful school year, as we all know he will have.

Shipwreck Kelly is marooned in Paris, France, and Kentucky's prospects for a banner football season are on the shoals.

This seems to be a week when this column is mostly about ourselves. But a little bit of history was made here Friday when the first paper in rolls-for printing a newspaper was brought into Murray. The new type press installed by the Ledger & Times takes it off the rolls, prints it, folds the papers and counts them, all automatically. The old method of hand-feeding sheets of paper through the press is abolished.

All Calloway county should be proud of the splendid Drum and Bugle Corps of the American Legion. The boys have a fine corps that appears well and plays well. We confidently predict that it will not be long before they are carrying off these prizes at the state and national Legion conventions.

One hundred and three Leslie county farmers are growing 995 beans for the first time.

Inconsiderate Driving

If we had our choice of writing one editorial that everyone in Calloway county would heed, there would be no difficulty whatever about selecting the subject. It would be about speedy, reckless and inconsiderate driving. Driving with no care or thought for the other fellow, driving without the slightest attention to the rules of the road, the standards of courtesy, the principles of ethics or the attitude of a lady or gentleman.

Many a careful driver, who obeys the rules of courtesy and the laws of the road, is injured every day by some reckless fool who apparently cares nothing for his own safety and certainly nothing for the other fellow.

Evidently, he looks upon the driver who extends him a common courtesy as a weak-kneed nitwit who ought to be blasted from the highway.

Thousands of innocent persons, including little school children, are pitilessly sacrificed every day to selfish, unbridled and heedless driving. It is a gigantic waste as a horrible toll that doesn't bring a single benefit to anybody.

The city of Cadiz has taken the matter into hand by establishing police officers along its main street where careful driving is enforced without spite or malice toward any driver, stranger or local. Those exceeding the speed limit are courteously asked to refrain from doing so for protection of children, pedestrians, other motorists and themselves.

Col. Henry Lawrence, the keen-minded and discerning editor of the Cadiz Record makes the following comment upon his city's step to curb the dangerous driver:

"What Cadiz is doing through its police force to make traffic a little more careful along the streets of the town, is by no means for any other purpose than that of the public safety. The town has no disposition to be at all uppish, nor has it any notion of putting itself in a class to object to modern methods. But there is a wide-spread demand for more care from the drivers of automobiles. Recklessness is going unbridled all over the country, and it is this thing that all thoughtful people want to stop. What is true with Cadiz is evidently true with all other cities and towns. What might result in good to all is for a conference of representatives of many neighbor cities and towns, in order that rules may be formulated that all will recognize as proper in handling the great question of automobile traffic. The officers of Cadiz are doing a good job of the undertaking it seems. How much better it could all be done if all towns in a section should adopt the same system and take similar steps to prevent accidents due largely to fast driving where more care should be observed."

Motions Passed by Murray Baptist Church in Rescinding Indefinite Call of Pastor

By a vote of 99 to 84 the indefinite call of the pastor of the Murray Baptist church, made in 1918, was rescinded at the regular business session of the church Wednesday evening, September 9. According to the minutes of the church clerk, J. H. Churchill.

At a meeting of the church members on October 6, a pastor will be selected for one year, according to the same motion rescinding the indefinite call.

Eight prominent members of the church were cleared of charges preferred by Pastor Taylor by a vote of 250 to 18, at the meeting last week. Those who had charges preferred against them on the grounds of non-support and causing a schism in the church and were cleared by the above vote were Dr. and Mrs. Hugh McElrath, Mr. and Mrs. J.

Wells Hall, Dormitory For Girls

D. Rowlett, Dr. W. H. Graves, Barber McElrath, J. H. Churchill and Ronald Churchill.

Following this vote, the following motion was made by Dr. McElrath and seconded by J. D. Purdom:

"Whereas, there has been much talk of division of this body and whereas it has been recommended and advocated by the pastor as the only remedy for the existing differences and, whereas there is a variance of opinion among the members as to the necessity, advisability, or expediency of such a procedure and whereas all differences of opinion in democratic bodies should be decided by a majority vote of the body. Therefore, be it resolved that the sense and opinion of this body be and that the same is hereby declared, and that we further go on record as opposed to any division of this body." The motion was carried by a vote of 103 to 3.

Dr. McElrath then made the following motion, which was seconded by R. W. Churchill:

"I move you, Brother Moderator, that the indefinite call of the pastor of the Murray Baptist church terminate at the regular Business Meeting in October and that we, at that time, call and elect a pastor for a period of one year." This motion was carried by a vote of 99 to 84.

Dr. McElrath then made the following motion, which was seconded by J. H. Churchill:

"Brother Moderator, I move you that whereas Baptist churches are and should be democratic bodies, that it be the sense and opinion of this body that a majority shall prevail in all matters and that all rulings in our Rules of Decorum in conflict with same be, and are hereby stricken from our Rules of Decorum." According to J. H. Churchill, clerk of the church, this motion was carried by a good majority.

While last week's action does not actually oust Elder Taylor from his pastorate it is general opinion that such is the case in fact and that another pastor will be called on October 6.

Elder Taylor has been pastor of the Murray Baptist church for the past thirty-four years. The principal differences between the pastor and members of the church arose during the war. Elder Taylor was arrested and placed in jail on a charge of holding services in violation of quarantine during the influenza epidemic in 1918. At that time he resigned the pastorate but was de-elected under the indefinite call which was rescinded last week.

For many years, Elder Taylor has published the "News and Truths" a Baptist weekly, which has taken determined positions on political as well as religious issues. Elder Taylor also operates an uptown office for the "News and Truths" and Baptist book store on the south side of the court square and for several years has conducted The West Kentucky Bible School at his home on North Fifth street.

TIGERS WILL MEET GLEASON FRIDAY

Local Team in Excellent Condition For Initial Clash at 3 P. M. Tomorrow

The Murray high school Tigers will open the pigskin lid tomorrow afternoon (Friday) when they meet the sturdy team of Gleason, Tenn., at three o'clock on the High School Athletic Field. This is the first football game of the season here and much interest is being shown and a large crowd is expected to be present to see the opening and fighting aggregation get results.

Several lettermen are back this year and also a good selection of new candidates have filled the gaping holes made by graduation last year. Coach Holland says he has plenty of good men and for the first time in several years can boast of dependable reserves. A line that is somewhat heavier than last year and a back field that is speedy have been developed into a fine piece of machinery that works with a deadly precision.

Captain Banks is charging the team with a "do or die" spirit and is whipping the team into real life with his crackling voice at quarter position. The little blunderer is highly respected by surrounding followers of the "skin" game.

Voris Wells, a brother of Auburn Wells, and Oren Wells, also a cousin to "Bull" Wells, former Murray High School and College stars, will perhaps do the kicking. He is looking good in the daily scrimmages. He is getting height and distance with the sphere.

With more than thirty candidates reporting daily and a majority of them showing more than usual ability, it will be hard to pick a probable line-up for the game tomorrow afternoon, but an attempt will be made to give it near as possible.

At center we will perhaps find Garvin Finney, a sure passer and a slashing tackler; at guards Gillman and Diuguid seem to get results, both are dependable men; at tackles Burgess and Russell look good and are heavy and experienced players; at ends, for the first time in a long time, we find two 6-foot specimens, long and rangy, at these positions we will more than likely find C. Jones and K. Irvin; the quarter position will be played by Captain Banks, the little giant of Murray high school; in V. Wells and Martin we have a couple of men who should smash the line and circle the ends in good style; last but not least, we have the position that is hard to fill any time and especially so after it being filled by a type of player as "Muddy" Thurman, he played a great year in 1930 but graduation set him on the side lines so far as high school football is concerned, however, Charles Underwood, a speedy, plugging piece of humanity will fill the open gap and is looking mighty good in practice games.

Never before in history of Murray high school have found the squad so nearly perfected. Coach Holland has worked long and hard to instill a fighting spirit in this bunch of animals of the forest and when they meet the Tennesseans on the battle field Friday afternoon we will see the results of his efforts.

PADUCAH'S BEST STORE'S GUTHRIE'S

Fall Fashions-1931

There is a feeling of elegance about the fall mode of 1931. Coats are richly fur trimmed, with detailed interest above the waistline and straighter skirts. Dresses show a contrast of color in many cases and are made up in shiny satins, woolsens and always the good standby—canton, but with a new surface finish.

The hats of velvet and felt show a complete revolution, with their up in the back—down over the face treatment and their gay feather trimmings.

It's all very bright and very interesting to the fashion-conscious woman of 1931. The mode stirs the desire for individuality in dress and GUTHRIE'S have a complete representation of the accepted styles. We are anxious for you to see them and the unusually low prices that are only possible through careful buying.

COSTLY MOTORS

Are you a careful driver that never drives fast? Careful driving doesn't always mean driving slowly nor does it always follow that you are driving carefully when you are driving slowly.

The last two sizable drafts drawn on our companies by this office, one involving payment of $1,000.00 and the other payment of $425.00 were settlements on automobile accidents which occurred when our drivers were going not more than ten miles an hour—but they were, without realizing it at the time, LEGALLY IN THE WRONG.

Think it over—the cost of liability insurance is small.

Melus Linn Gets World Series Tickets from Old Friend, Now Cardinal Manager

Almost thirty years ago, Melus Linn, of the Murray Laundry, and Charles "Gabby" Street were team mates on the school baseball club at Hopkinsville and grew to be intimate friends.

When school days were over, Street told Linn that he was "going to the top" and insisted that he come along with him.

But Linn, who was one of the best ball players of this section at that time, decided to forsake the national pastime.

Street, a catcher, went on with baseball and finally landed at Washington as the battery mate of the famous Walter Johnson, when the great "smoke ball" pitcher was in his prime. Street caught Johnson when the latter set the American League record of 16 straight victories in 1912 and also won 26 games that year against seven defeats.

Street also won world-wide fame when he was the first catcher to catch a ball dropped from Washington Monument, 555 feet high.

But ball players, don't usually last long in fast company, the pace is too fast. So as Street grew older, his days in the big league were over and he gradually drifted lower until he became a manager—down in the bush leagues.

He was successful there, and in 1929 was brought to the St. Louis Cardinals National League Club as a coach. The club had a new manager each season for several years and when Street was given the post at the beginning of the 1930 season, it was predicted that he wouldn't last long.

The middle of August last year, the Cardinals were in fourth place, having won just a game or two more than they had lost. But they took on a great spurt and swept into the pennant.

They lost the World Series four games to two, to the famous Philadelphia Athletics but they made the best showing of any National League team in the world since 1924.

Douglas High Opens Session Monday, 14

By Silas Dean
Sept. 14—Teachers met the teachers of Douglas High School (colored) Saturday afternoon and outlined a very interesting program for the year.

School opened Monday with an increased enrollment and a large number of patrons present. May Ed Filbeck of the city was present and gave to the student body and patrons a very timely address.

Reverend A. Moore, a visiting minister, was introduced next and was interesting in his remarks. The ministers of the city, the teachers, and many of the patrons asked the support of the community in school work.

Through the efforts of Superintendent Caplinger we think that the school has qualified for another year of high school work, which will give us a three-year school and another teacher.

Mrs. E. McKinney, president of the Parent Teachers Association, and committee, Mrs. Fannie Willis, chairman, have furnished the entire building with shades. With all these indications we feel that we are going forward educationally.

Little Tommy D. Taylor is on the sick list this week.

A few weeks ago the writer noticed in the Ledger & Times a piece of poetry on "Blaming the Printer". Not every error that is in a newspaper is made by the printer. Often correspondents make errors, however, I don't think they mean to make untrue statements. So if an error is made, why not look over it good naturedly and feel that "To err is human".

Mrs. Roy Craig returned home Thursday. She has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Perry Stubblefield of Nashville. Mrs. Stubblefield has been ill for a few weeks.

Reynolds Reelfoot Sausage is the Quality Sausage of this part of America. Perfectly ground from the choicest pork and delicately seasoned, it is the equivalent of the fine "country sausage" of our grandfathers and grandmothers. People who know, ask for it throughout the Reynolds territory, and many will take no other.

Reynolds Ham and Bacon are cured "country style," smoked brown with smoke from hickory wood. If you appreciate real, old fashioned cured bacon and hams, try Reelfoot Bacon and Hams. The odor of them cooking makes the mouth water.

About all the good meat shops and groceries that handle fresh meats handle Reynolds Sausage and many grocers feature Reynolds Hams and Bacon.

If you are not among the regular Reynolds patrons, buy and try these wonderful meats.

Love Essential to Life Says Norma Shearer

Love is essential to life—which, in turn, is essential to drama. For drama, to be true, must be true, must be life. So says Norma Shearer, star of "A Free Soul," which will come October 12th and 13th to the Capitol Theatre. The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star, who plays a woman seeking "freedom" in the new picture and finds that it leads only to disaster, portrays a girl who tries to love two men at once—without success. "I mean real love—not sham affection," explains Miss Shearer, outlining just what happened in the making of many emotions. Many think of love as having two bodyguard and Lucy Beaumont as the aristocratic grandmother.

Pastor Gives Wrong Cue and Girl Succeeds

Many are spoken of as converts to the stage and screen; but perhaps Anna May Wong is one of the few to actually experience the application of the term "conversion" in its customary literal sense. A Chinese ex-Baptist minister gave Miss Wong her first chance at a career which was to result in unequalled acclaim before footlights and camera. James Wang, who still plays character roles, procured Miss

Wong work as an extra. In giving Wang credit, Paramount's sleek princess of mystery to be featured at the Capitol Theatre, week starting Wednesday, September 12th, in "Daughter of the Dragon," says: "In motion pictures, no one person can usually take credit for the success of a player. Many have aided me to get where I am. However, the first helping hand was given by Wang. He had been a Baptist minister but had left his pulpit to act in pictures. He maintained a general store and was commissioned by studios to gather Chinese players for oriental scenes. He gave me my first extra parts and encouraged me to keep on trying. I was then brought to the Capitol Theatre screen Wednesday and Thursday, September 23 and 24th.

Anna May Wong, Warner Oland and Sessie Hayakawa form a formidable Oriental element for this production. Yet was there a call sent out for Tom Gubbins, an American who has lived in China many years, and who has had a technical finger in the photoplay paddings of all companies which have striven for authentic atmosphere in pictures with an oriental setting.

As technical aide to Director Lloyd Corrigan, the unofficial mayor of Los Angeles' Chinatown had charge of passbook on many details of properties used, and chose most of the character and bit players recruited from the Chinese settlements for Paris in the story.

American movie fans, Miss Wong enacts the part of a daughter of "Fu Manchu," who surrenders a brilliant career and an affair of love, to carry on the scheme of vengeance passed to her by her father's dying hand.

Chinatown Mayor Has Regular Job

One of the feudal lords of a 1931 domain, the unofficial mayor of Chinatown in Los Angeles, doffed his civic responsibilities, closed his office and answered a summons as inflexible as a military bugle call, when Paramount began shooting on "Daughter of the Dragon," Sam Rohmer says. The picture, which reaches the Capitol Theatre screen Wednesday and Thursday, September 23 and 24th.

These duties have been his on almost every oriental picture produced in Hollywood during the past five years.

The story of "Daughter of the Dragon" is generated by the exploits of a vengeful mandarin and his beautiful daughter, who come to London to rub out a traditional debt of honor, incipient in the alleged slaying of oriental royals, several generations removed.

Sam Wood directed this hilarious screen version of the H. M. Harwood stage hit and has endowed the production with a racy tempo that never relents from its original course or purpose for a single flicker. The dialogue is smart and sophisticated and the fluidity of the action is swift and racy, despite the somewhat cramped locale of the English cot-

Capitol Theatre. In his new vehicle the young star appears as the hero of a delightful masquerade, impersonating an English butler to accommodate a dashing young widowed-district. In fact, he goes a bit farther, as the story unfolds, also taking the place of her absent lover.

What Football
Means to a Boy

Knut Rockne, who will be so sadly missed during the next few months, said in the Rotarian Magazine shortly before his tragic death that "A man who can be a gentleman on the football field can be a gentleman anywhere—and what is more to the point, will if I had my way, I would teach the young men of all countries to reach for a football instead of a hand grenade."

I would like to see international football games. It would do a lot to perpetuate the fine old tradition of true sportsmanship among the young fellows of the world—and they're the ones who really count. It would give them lessons in fair dealing and respect for others they wouldn't forget when it comes their turn to run the world's affairs. And Rockne's words and thoughts are words and thoughts of a wise man.

Whisperings

(A Worth-while Editorial Selected by the National Editorial Association)

Psst, Psst, Psst! Have you—? You don't say! Well, Well.

And away goes another reputation for life long honesty, decency, right living.

There isn't a more sinister, vicious, evil, advantage-taking method of spreading derogatory propaganda than through the Whispering Grapevine Route.

At times it rolls along apparently harmless as idle gossip. Then again as a thistle it turns over and over, gathering more rubbish through malignant contacts with venomous subjects.

Since Murray State College was established the students have found it most satisfactory to call—which cling to it, until finally it becomes a giant prairie roller, a composite of all that is filthy and patric in the community.

Fanned by the gale, the fastest runner cannot keep up with it.

White-livered, black and white stripped animals, who in order to further their own interests, or who delight in besmirking decent characters to the aroma of their own, start their whisperings by planting them deliberately at vulnerable peddling points, breathe the breath of life into monsters, and then all the imps of hell lash them on.

The old-time alleged powers of witchcraft were inconsequential, compared to the possibilities for character-slaying, embodied in the witchery of Dame Rumor, and yet, today there are no stocks to fasten these vicious Rumor purveyors in, as objects of public contempt; no lashing posts at which to scourge them; no stakes at which to burn them.

Suicides, murders, bank failures, bankruptcies, home, church and school wrecks are spectacles which rattle at the gate of Dame Rumor. Politicians work her overtime, and even in Washington's day she was so active, he declared he'd rather fight a whole army than one vicious rumor.

The worst enemy of prosperity, the outstanding enemy of progress, the foe of harmony, the greatest enemy of happiness, and the biggest liar in the universe, Dame Rumor is a wanton who refuses to come out and fight in the open.

She is sneaking, cowardly, snake-like; an object for fear and abhorrence, that should be crushed, squelched, choked, and hurled back into the depths of the bottomless pit from which she dared to emerge, because of the staid efforts of her masters.—Leader, Pipestone, Minnesota.

"I'm glad we have a Telephone again"

A number of people who gave up their telephones during the stress of the past twelve months have told us that this proved to be false economy and they have had their service restored.

Those who have not had their service reinstalled, and those who may be hesitating about having a telephone of their own, are reminded that telephone service is no longer regarded as an expense, but is considered a necessary home convenience and economy.

No other money you spend can bring you more actual value. Thousands of telephone subscribers know the truth of this. They do not consider their telephone statement as a "bill," but rather as a reminder of pleasant living and broadened opportunities.

Those who have previously enjoyed telephone service appreciate it more than ever; new subscribers wonder how they ever did without it.

Telephone service costs so little and the advantages are so many that it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.

Possessing the basic goodness of sound design and fine manufacture

CHEVROLET From the selection of raw materials to the completion of the finished Chevrolet product, each process of building, assembling and checking the Chevrolet Six is marked by extreme care and precision. An exhaustive system of test and inspection makes certain that every part meets specified dimensions exactly. Many of these parts are held to limits of one ten-thousandth of an inch. No manufacturer in the industry uses more care or precision in building and testing than Chevrolet.

Just as every part of the car is soundly built, every feature is soundly designed.

In planning the motor, Chevrolet engineers were not content to offer the public anything less than tried and proved design. They knew that the only satisfactory way to get smooth, flexible power in a car is to use at least six cylinders. So they adopted the six-cylinder engine without compromise. And this is what you get in today's Chevrolet Six.

As a result of this sound designing and sound manufacturing, you can buy a Chevrolet and know you are getting a genuinely good automobile—soundly designed, soundly built, basically and technically right.

Love Essential to Life Says Norma Shearer

Love is essential to life—which entitles "first love" as it were, to be the most essential. That is not drama. For drama, to be true, must be life. So says Norma Shearer, star of "A Free Soul," which will come October 12th and 13th to the Capitol Theatre. The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star, who plays a woman seeking "freedom" in the new picture and finds that it leads only to disaster, portrays a girl who tries to love two men at once—without success. "I mean real love—not sham affection," explains Miss Shearer, outlining just what happened in the picture. "I think love is a composite of many emotions. Many think of love as having two bodyguard and Lucy Beaumont as the aristocratic grandmother.

Pastor Gives Wrong Cue and Girl Succeeds

Many are spoken of as converts to the stage and screen; but perhaps Anna May Wong is one of the few to actually experience the application of the term "Conversion" in its customary literal sense. A Chinese ex-Baptist minister gave Miss Wong her first chance at a career which was to result in unequalled acclaim before footlights and camera. James Wong, who said, "I am a Baptist minister, but I had left his pulpit to act in pictures. He gave me my first extra parts and encouraged me to keep on. In her talkie introduction to

Wong work as an extra. In giving Wong credit, Paramount's sleek princess of myrmidonism, she is featured at the Capitol Theatre, week starting Wednesday, September 22nd. In "Daughter of the Dragon," says: "In motion pictures, no one person can usually take credit for the success of a player. Many have aided me to get where I am. However, the first helping hand was given by Wong. He had been a Baptist minister, but had left his pulpit to act in pictures. He maintained a general store and was commissioned by studios to gather Chinese players for oriental scenes. "He gave me my first extra parts and encouraged me to keep on. In her talkie introduction to day and Thursday, September 23 and 24th. Anna May Wong, Warner Oland and Sessue Hayakawa form a formidable Oriental element for this production. Yet was there a call sent out for Tom Gubbins, an American who has lived in China many years, and who has had a technical finger in the photoplay puddings of all companies which have striven for authentic atmosphere in pictures with an oriental setting. As technical aide to Director Lloyd Corrigan, the unofficial mayor of Los Angeles' Chinatown had charge of passing on many details of properties used, and chose most of the character and bit players recruited from the Chinese settlements for parts in the story.

American movie fans, Miss Wong enacts the part of a daughter of "Fu Manchu," who surrenders a brilliant career and an affair of love, to carry on the scheme of vengeance passed to her by her father's dying hand.

Chinatown Mayor Has Regular Job

One of the feudal lords of 1931 domain, the unofficial mayor of Chinatown in Los Angeles, Lloyd Corrigan, the unofficial mayor of Los Angeles' Chinatown had charge of passing on many details of properties used, and chose most of the character and bit players recruited from the Chinese settlements for parts in the story.

These duties have been his on almost every oriental picture produced in Hollywood during the past five years. The story of "Daughter of the Dragon" is generated by the exploits of a vengeful mandarin and his beautiful daughter, who come to London to rub out a traditional debt of honor. Incipient in the alleged slaying of oriental royalists, several generations removed.

Robert Montgomery Scores as Butler in "The Man in Possession"

Robert Montgomery turns butler in "The Man in Possession" which opens October 10th at the Capitol Theatre. In his new vehicle the young star appears as the hero of a delightful masquerade, impersonating an English butler to accommodate a dashing young widow-in-distress. In fact, he goes a bit farther, as the story unfolds, also taking the place of her absent lover. Sam Wood directed this hilarious screen version of the H. M. Harwood stage hit and has endowed the production with a racy tempo that never relents from its original course or purpose for a single flicker. The dialogue is smart and sophisticated and the fluidity of the action is swift and racy, despite the somewhat cramped locale of the English estate.

What Football
Means to a Boy

Knut Rockne, who will be so sadly missed during the next few months, said in the Rotarian Magazine shortly before his tragic death that "A man who can be a gentleman on the football field can be a gentleman anywhere—and what is more to the point, will if he had my way, I would teach the young men of all countries to reach for a football instead of a hand grenade."

"I would like to see international football games. It would do a lot to perpetuate the fine old tradition of true sportsmanship among the young fellows of the world—and they're the ones who really count. It would give them lessons in fair dealing and teach them that they wouldn't forget when it comes their turn to run the world's affairs." And Rockne's words and thoughts are a warning and thoughts of a wise man.

HARRISON AND HIGH TAXES

(Somerset Journal)
Mayor Harrison has been asked for a budget of twelve million dollars to run Louisville the next year. This is an increase of $300,000 over last year. Since Mr. Harrison has been Mayor, taxes have increased in Louisville about 25 per cent and more money has been spent than under any previous administration. Not so good a record to go before the people and ask to be elected Governor. Our taxes are too high now—what the people want is lower taxes and more efficient government. It is going to be mighty hard to elect a high tax man Governor of this state. If Kentucky was rolling in wealth, had no indebtedness and it mattered not how much money was expended for government operation, then no doubt "Little Boy Blue" Harrison would make an ideal Governor. But what Kentucky needs now is a man who knows how to save, not to spend.

PLEASANT GROVE SCHOOL

We are having some more hot weather. Several of the farmers are cutting tobacco, some few have already finished and are drying.

We had our first holiday Monday, which was Labor Day. Our school had a pie supper last Saturday night. There was a large crowd attended. A goodly sum was collected.

We have finished our exams again. Several had to miss because of cutting tobacco and other work. We are still planning on our program. We have a play by the name "Timothy Casey's Secret" which is a thirty minute play.

The characters are:
Timothy Casey—Pat Rogers; A mystery to his wife, Katy—Nitarree Brewer; his wife, Mamie—Murphy—Lucille Jones. The woman who borrows; Bridget Malone—Maurine Rogers. The woman who talks; Mr. Grabbitz—J. T. Phillips. The landlady; John Sands—Macon Miller. Bank Director; Rafferty—Harlan Bruce. A Policeman; Michael—Norville Cole. Katy's long absent brother; We also have a negro play to be given at the same time.

All the grades are having head-marks. Some will be given prizes at the end of the year, others at the end of the month. This includes the beginners.

Friday afternoon the school had an all around spelling. The one standing longest was Miss Mildred Jones.

Miss Myrtle Mae Ray was the Tuesday night guest of Miss Nitarree Brewer.

Mr. Fleetwood Rogers and family have moved to his father's, this week.

Misses Musette and Rachel Marshall, Della Cook, Mr. Henry Cook, and Nelson Deason spent last Sunday as a week with Mr. Tom Jones and family. The afternoon callers were; Mr. and Mrs. Zelma Russell and son Z. B. A. J. Marshall, William Hurt and Fred Cook.

Miss Myrtle Mae Ray and Miss Nitarree Brewer, spent Thursday night with Misses Mildred and Dorothy Neil Jones.

Misses Della Cook, Lucille Jones, Elizabeth Broach and Messrs. Fred Cook and Adell Magnus were the Sunday visitors of Miss Rachel, Musette and Mr. A. J. Marshall.

Our Friday guests were Miss Lorne Russell who was our all day guest and Misses Geneva and Elizabeth Adams who came that afternoon.—Star.

Stone Gets Contract

N. E. Stone & Co., Madisonville, was awarded the contract for the graveling of the Hazel-Murray road by the state highway department at the price of $14,314.12.

The E. T. Mercer Co., West Point, Ky., was low bidder on the road at $11,976.26 but for some unexplained reason was not given the contract. Stone's bid was $13,348.87 more than Mercer's.

The Mercer Co. was, however, given the contract on the Benton-Maxfield surfacing at $7,879.32. It was said here that a movement was on foot to urge that the contract be given to Stone because "The Mercer Company would be all winter finishing the road."

BEN JOHNSON

(Caldiz Record)

Since party candidates were nominated and the plan of contest for the fall political campaign outlined in party platforms in Kentucky, there has not been a gathering of Republicans in any section of the state that bitter attacks were not made upon Hon. Ben Johnson, chairman of the State Highway Commission.

For more than forty years Ben Johnson has been a conspicuous figure in the official life of Kentucky and the nation.

In Kentucky he has been member of the Legislature and Speaker of the House; State Senator and Collector of Internal Revenue.

For twenty years he was the Representative in Congress from the Fourth district.

During this time he has been the subject of criticism, just as all men of conviction and positive force are criticised. But not once has there been the breath of suspicion upon his honor as a citizen or a capable and honest public official.

While in Washington as a member of Congress he was criticised because he often interfered with the plans of many whose attacks upon the public treasury could not at all times be justified.

Much of the criticism against him during more recent years right here in Kentucky is due to his ever being on the watch for the welfare of the people in securing that when money was spent, it should bring an equal return in service rendered.

As chairman of the Road Commission at Frankfort, he has established a reputation for being at his post of duty more closely perhaps than any other official of the entire state.

He spends never less than four and a half hours at his desk in the Highway Commission office.

He reaches his office never later than 7:30 in the morning and five o'clock finds him still on the job.

Every piece of mail that enters the building is personally handled by him.

Every pay roll for the 5,000 and more who are employed by the Road Department is handled by him.

The vast number of vouchers in payment for material that goes into road construction are handled by him.

Of all the vast quotations received on bids to supply material, Mr. Johnson personally handles all of them.

He has been present at the opening of all bids for the construction of roads and the purchase of materials since he has been in office.

"Practically every morning" he opens the building and lets the janitor in.

Because he believes that every person connected with the Road Department should be loyal to its policies and faithful to every trust imposed; because he has frankly opposed all plans that seemed questionable in the handling of the road money of the state, and has not tampered with any scheme that did not have the welfare of the state for its purpose, he has naturally aroused opposition, as all men who dare and do

When I get bilious, I have a nervous headache and a nervous, trembling feeling that unites me for my work. After I take a few doses of Black-Draught, I get all right. When I begin to get bilious, I feel tired and run-down, and then the headache and trembling. But Black-Draught relieves all this."—W. O. Hendrix, Homerville, Ga.

have ever done.

For this he offers no apology nor will any author citizen who has due regard for official integrity and who subscribes to the doctrine that "public office is a public trust."

History affords no exception to the rule that where men have stood for the right and for the welfare of the people, they have met bitter opposition.

The case of Ben Johnson right here in the state of Kentucky is no exception to that rule.

MAN must be worthy of credit before he can incur indebtedness. A home or farm mortgage company, an automobile finance company, or a bank, demand definite proof of a man's ability to save. How, they soundly reason, can we expect him to save after we extend credit, if he never saved before?

Just a reasonable sum in sound securities quickly establishes credit. It enables you to buy the things you want to buy.

Then, too, there's the income from money saved and invested in sound securities of liberal yield. It can be used to cover the interest charges of a finance company.

PADUCAH TO HOLD A JUBILEE WEEK

Elaborate Displays, Shows, Exhibits To Be Held at Hook's Park Next Week.

Plans which have been in the making for the past three months will be put into operation next Monday for Jubilee Week in Paducah created by the Retail Merchants.

A huge tent has been raised in Hook's Park under which one hundred merchants will display every kind of merchandise used on the farm or in the home and many merchants have brought special displays to Paducah for the event.

Style shows, with living models, will be offered by the merchants from their booths. Home appliances, farm machinery, and other labor saving devices will be seen in operation at the exposition. A cattle and poultry show will also be featured and eighteen Home Makers' Clubs of McCracken County will present a showcase of the county agricultural products. Seven big circus acts, entirely different from anything seen in Paducah, will be offered upon a huge stage, which will be erected in the center of the tented city. The elaborate display booth and overhead decorations, costing $15,000, will turn the mammoth tent into a fairland presenting a panorama equal to a miniature World Fair.

The Retail Merchants have completed arrangements with the railroads for reduced fares all next week as well as bridge tolls. Beginning Saturday, September 17, three cars will be given away the first on Saturday in front of the City Hall, second on Tuesday, September 22, at the Exposition Tent, and third on Friday, September 25, at the Exposition Tent, all at 3:30 p. m. The merchants in Paducah are offering free coupons from which their awards will be made. The Retail Merchants of Paducah estimate that 30,000 people will attend what will be the greatest event ever staged in this section.

MISS LEINE IS DEAD AT FORT WAYNE HOME

Miss Igna Paar Leine, a member of the faculty of Murray State College, died Wednesday at her home in Fort Wayne, Indiana, following an extended illness.

Dr. Rainey T. Wells received a telegram this morning, announcing Miss Leine's death.

Miss Leine was an instructor in dramatics and public speaking and was popular here. She was formerly a member of the staff of the Fort Wayne Musical College.

A short time ago, the college was advised that she would not be able to teach this year on account of poor health but her death was a great shock to friends here.

Lespedeza Fields in County Are Examined

County Agent C. O. Diekey and Ralph Kenney of the University of Kentucky, recently examined several of the 75 fields of Korean and Kobe Lespedeza growing in Calloway county. The fields of Davis Weather and H. F. Waldron were inspected for certification and passed field inspection tests.

A group of 28 growers met at the farm of Chas. Smith in the Penny community to hear a talk on Korean Lespedeza by Mr. Kenney and inspect the 40 acres of this crop growing on the farm. Mr. Kenney estimated that Mr. Smith would make from 300 to 500 pounds of Korean seed per acre. Several of the growers are planning on threshing their crop for seed, so we will have a local seed supply next spring.

CITY GOLF CHAMP TO BE DETERMINED

Qualifying Round Will Start on Murray Country Club Course, October 1.

The first Murray city golf championship play will start October 1, according to an announcement by Brooks Starr, in charge of the course at the Murray Golf and Country Club. Qualifying rounds for the tournament will start on that date.

Those with the lowest scores in the qualifying round will tee off in match play in an elimination that will bring the finals down to two players. No handicaps will be given, all golfers playing at scratch.

Starr announced that anyone attending college this year is eligible to play in the tournament. There are several promising players among the students and they are expected to give some keen competition to Bryan Langston, Charley Jennings, Dr. Rainey Wells, Dean A. B. Austin and others who qualify as the best scores here.

The greens at the local course are much improved and the fairways are being closely cropped. The Murray links are improving rapidly.

A small trophy will be awarded the winner of the city championship play.

Elliott county reports continued progress in its purebred sires campaign, with 93 per cent of the bulls in the county now purebred. The Paducah Board of Trade is sponsoring the growing of high quality tobacco by 40 junior agricultural club boys.
